MAREIA ROUNTREE.

MRS. MARY LE NOIR DIES SUDDENLY—DEATH SHOCKS THE WHOLE COMMUNITY.

Obituary.

Mrs. Mary Le Noir was born in Columbia, Mo., August 31, 1874. At the age of 5 years she moved with her mother to Centralia, Mo., where as a child she formed the lasting friendships of Mrs. Laura Akers and Mrs. Cassie Harris, also Mrs. Lena P. Jordan, 2448 Paseo, and Mrs. Fanny Pryor, 1813 East Sixteenth street, both of Kansas City, Mo., their present residence. They have come to pay the last respects to their noble friend. In 1887 she was joined in holy bonds of wedlock with Mr. Jack Le Noir and to this union were born six children, all of whom survive. She moved her family to Denver, Colo., in 1909, she having become an active church and Eastern Star worker whose reputation at conventions was known because of her tireless work. She joined Zion's Baptist church as soon as she arrived, as her early child life had been devoted along that line. To omit saying anything of her capabilities the Star would feel that an epoch was deleted. Her close friends say that early in her married life she developed a character of strong conviction and determination which soon overcame ordinary timidity. As a matter of course she practiced the strictest economy in the home to make ends meet, as the children grew older. Mother, sisters and brothers became boon companions; they were sometimes criticized and accused of being selfish and conceited, but not so; it was purely a devoted love characteristic of the Le Noir family. Sacrifice of the mother for her children was a pleasure which was and is today reflected in the children in the home, in the streets or wherever you meet them.

The Funeral.

At the home was the funeral services conducted by Presiding Elder Pope and Rev. W. H. Thomas of Shorter, and Rev. Over of Zion. So many beautiful floral displays around her couch casket made it appear that Mrs. Le Noir was only quietly sleeping while the star in the east was sweetly smiling down upon her arranged in her Eastern Star regalia. Roses, carnations and other flowers in blankets, pillows, hearts and bouquets were banked up high about the casket as an indication with what esteem in which she was held by all. Prominent above all were flowers from Missouri by her Missouri friends.—Denver Star.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

Will not some of the clubs or societies rally to the support of the piano fund? Are we so little concerned in the welfare of our girls?

Sustaining memberships are increasing. The Advisory Committee is proving an asset to the Y. W. C. A. Sustaining memberships of $5.00 for women will be spurred this week.

All girls who wish to enroll in the Choral Club, meet Mrs. Shannon at the Center next Sunday at 5 o'clock.

The piano class of Mrs. Shannon netted $6.00 for the piano fund in their recital.

A "Task Party" was given at the Center Tuesday night by the Y. W. C. A. of the Second Baptist Church, under the direction of Miss Melcenia Williams.

An Association Party will be given at the Center, Thursday, August 5, from 4 to 8, for the Girl Reserves and other girls. Come and plan to elect your delegates to the Y. W. C. A. Camp Conference at St. Louis. Refreshments served free.

COMMUNITY SERVICE NOTES.

Though it is hot, and a number of clubs have adjourned for the summer, and most every one seek the lawns and parks, the Center has not been forgotten, our friends are using the building to its uttermost capacity.

We were pleased to have a visit by a delegation of Urban League workers headed by Mr. L. A. Halbert, supervisor of the Urban League work in Kansas City. They expressed themselves as being well pleased with our Community Center, and the future outlook of the work.

The Merry Makers Carnival, a pageant in tunes and rhythm, under the direction of Mrs. Daisy McKnight, July 19, was a grand success. Among the many patrons was Miss Matlock, secretary of Community Service work at 1211 McGee street, who highly commended the splendid work of Mrs. McKnight.

We wish to extend a cordial welcome to all the visitors in our city during the sessions of the Grand Lodges to make the Center a place to rest, to meet friends, and for business meetings.

The members of the first Community club will meet Monday evening at the Center for the election of officers.

JEFF'S LUNCH—1900 VINE ST.

Wm. Jasper Allen, republican candidate for prosecuting attorney, was born and reared in Carrollton, Mo., in which place Wm. M. Allen, his father, a veteran of the civil war, who fought for the freedom of the colored race, now resides. Mr. Allen was admitted to the bar at the age of 21 and six years later was elected prosecuting attorney of Carroll county. He states that he knows no "ism" but republicanism and that if elected he will endeavor to give every person justice; that under the law, both human and divine, all men should have equal rights and that as prosecutor he would impartially serve the poor as well as the rich, the black as well as the white.

Chicago, July 22.—J. G. Holmes, a white man of Cedar Rapids, Ia., hits one "Frank Harris" a stinging blow, in a special letter to The Chicago Tribune. If one is looking for a statement with a "kick" in it, here it is:

Says Mr. Holmes: "I see that Frank Harris seems peeved because you said things about his beloved south. Perhaps he can tell by what code of honesty Georgia manages to get twelve congressmen on a total vote of 59,196, or Louisiana eight on a total of 44,794 votes, while it takes 121,836 votes for Maine to get four congressmen and Iowa 340,311 votes to get eleven congressmen. Perhaps he can tell what glory there is in the fact that out of the 175 congressmen of the Democratic party, 113 come from the section which steals its members in that way, while sixty-two come from all the rest of the country, and that out of that sixty-two there are eighteen from the plug ugly districts of New York City. Also just why there is no such thing as an Independence Day celebration south of Mason and Dixon line, but that the people of that section show their enthusiasm by burning fire crackers on Christmas, or just why the usual practice of Independence Day celebration was passed in the city of Washington, this year for the first time in a generation, or just why school officers prohibit the use of school buildings for lectures when the subject is Harriet Beecher Stowe, or just why the New Orleans Picayune tells its readers that their model of character as taught their children is Jefferson Davis and not Abraham Lincoln, and that northern people must strictly understand that, and just why the schools of all that section teach in their school histories that in all things relating to the civil war the South was always right and the North evilestingly wrong.

ELKS NEED MORE ROOMS

We take the opportunity of thanking the citizens of Kansas City who have been so kind in opening their homes to the visitors during our Convention the week of August 22nd.

We realize the sacrifice many of you are making and assure you we appreciate it. However, we have listed accommodations for only 3,000 and are expecting at least 10,000 visitors. This makes it necessary for us to again appeal to those who have not already done so, to list their homes with us. Remember that these visitors are the guests of Kansas City and we must treat them so that when they leave they will have only praise for the hospitality of the Negroes of our city.

For any information, call Housing Committee, Bell phone Grand 895. Felix H. Payne, Chairman.
